

AFRICAN ANGLING DESTINATION GUIDE

HOW TO, WHERE TO AND WHEN TO

AFRICAN BUCKET LIST ANGLING DESTINATIONS

The African continent has the finest saltwater angling destinations the world has to offer: the sheer beauty and wide open spaces add up to some of the most coveted and appealing destinations for any angling traveller, their family and friends.

The aim of the guide is to give our readers an overview of what the featured areas have to offer and information on what to expect, how to get there, where to stay and which species can be targeted in which areas. The A5 publication will be split into four geographical areas, Namibia, South Africa, Mozambique, Kenya and the surrounding archipelago islands of Madagascar, Reunion and Mauritius. There will also be a section for fishing charter companies, stating their specialisation areas and allocated according to country and area.

The print date is Monday, 18 September and the guide will be inserted and bagged with the October/November edition of Rock Surf & Deep.
