The Experience

As a pre-eminent showcase of the work done by South Africa's leading architects, The Journal of South African Architects is a powerful medium through which we deliver fresh, intelligent coverage of modern architecture and design, seeking to inform and inspire, and communicate sophisticated and innovative concepts that keeps readers engaged and delighted.

Not only a discourse in architecture and urbanism, conversations also examine the relationship between the architect and civil engineers, urban and regional planners, drafters, interior designers, and landscape architects.

Arch SA is a collaborative platform that transforms the complexity of the build into an experience that lives, breathes and echoes how we see ourselves and how we see the world.
